Boston at New York.

Philadelphia, April 28.—Johnson had the Athletics beaten forays aiming to stay, but the world's champions finished strong in the seventh and eighth and lost to the Red Sox, 10-9. In the seventh when Baker singled and was forced by Melvin, who scored from first on Stinson's double, to the right field wall, Baker dashed through the gap with a long single and second and went on to third on Almeling's low throw scoring on Wyckoff's sacrifice.
